CHOORAKKODI

Chelavoor | Established Since 1960

1. History and Heritage

Founded by C. M. M. Gurukkal, Choorakkodi in Chelavoor preserves and continues the traditional practice of Kalaripayattu, Kerala's traditional martial art. The institution has been shaping generations through martial arts training, self-defence, discipline and character development.

2. The Four Kalari Training Sections

Kalari training is divided into four main sections, each developing different skills and techniques.

- Maithaari: Focuses on foundational exercises, body movements, flexibility, balance and coordination.
- Koolthaari: Introduces training with wooden weapons, developing control, timing and coordination.
- Anghathaari: Involves training with traditional sharp weapons under the careful supervision of an experienced instructor.
- Verum Kaimura: Focuses on unarmed combat and self-defence techniques.

3. Four Anghanghal

The training repertoire includes four traditional practices:

- Meypayattu
- Vadippayattu
- Angathappayattu
- Marmakkaai

These practices form part of the traditional training followed at Choorakkodi Kalari.

4. Training for Children

The sub-junior programme is designed for children aged 6–14. Sessions begin with a 15–20-minute stretching routine, followed by foundational Kalari practices such as Puthra Vanakkam, Kalari Vandanam, Meyppayattu, Kaalukal and Chuvadukal. Training is introduced according to each learner's level and the instructor's guidance.

5. Self-Defence and Personal Development

Through structured martial arts practice, students develop body control, awareness, defensive responses and confidence. The training also encourages discipline, concentration and mental resilience.

6. Leadership and Administration

Choorakkodi Kalari is led by President Dr. Saheer Ali, with A. Moosa Haji serving as General Secretary. C. M. M. Gurukkal, the founder, is also recognised as the former president.

7. The Legacy of Choorakkodi Kalari
